LOMA RANCH'S EAST PASTURE

The easternmost pasture of the Loma Ranch features pleasant topography, majestic trees, diverse habitat, great wildlife and native grasses. As close and accessible as the property is, it still offers substantial privacy and incredible views. This ranch will either make a fantastic close in hill country ranch for the new owner or simply a very high quality investment with significant development potential with its location along Highway 306 (approximately 2,640' of highway frontage).

Price: $4,600,000 ($11,500/acre)

★ Comal County

★ 400 +/- Acres

★ Texas Hill Country

★ White-tailed deer, dove, turkey, feral hogs

★ Located 33.9 miles from San Antonio

★ Two dirt ponds fed by runoff

Location: The ranch is located between Spring Branch and Blanco in southernmost Blanco County on Hwy. 306, about 3.4 miles east of Hwy. 281. The ranch is located only 33.9 driving miles from the San Antonio International Airport and just a few miles from Canyon Lake. Great shopping, golf courses, boating, Guadalupe River or Canyon Lake recreation and dining are all close by.

Habitat: The ranch is in the famed Texas Hill Country and is dominated by beautifully rolling terrain with native bunch grasses such as little bluestem and blue grama. It has ample tree cover including live oaks, Spanish oaks, shin oaks, cherry, hackberry, soapberry, gum bumelia, redbud and juniper. In addition, there are numerous diverse brush species including algerita, evergreen sumac, mountain laurel and Texas Kidneywood providing both wildlife cover and nutrition. Most of the land has been part of an extensive juniper management program during the last approximate ten years; although some areas were left intact for sanctuary wildlife cover and view shed protection. All of the property is very usable, with gently rolling hills that are easily accessible. There are several drainages, with associated habitat that eventually flow into Devils Hollow and into Canyon Lake.

Wildlife: The ranch has a good population of white-tailed deer, turkey, dove plus some feral hogs.

Improvements: There are no material permanent structures on the ranch. There are a main entry road and a loop road plus some UTV trails. The perimeter fencing is in good condition; although the western boundary (or portions thereof) are unfenced since ranch is part of a larger ranch.

Water: This ranch is located over the Trinity Aquifer. Groundwater is regulated by the Comal Trinity Groundwater Conservation District. There are two dirt ponds on the property fed by runoff. There is also evidence of seeps and springs during wetter periods.

Electricity: Electricity is found along the west side of the property.

Property Taxes: The property is currently taxed at 1-d-1 (Open Space) Agricultural Use valuation.

Minerals: The sellers are willing to negotiate the conveyance of a portion of Sellers' owned mineral estate.

When buying investment property the buyer's agent, if applicable, must be identified on first contact and must be present at initial showing of the property listing to the prospective real estate investor in order to participate in real estate commission. If this condition is not met, fee participation will be at sole discretion of Republic Ranches, LLC.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be supervised by a broker to perform any services and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

- AS AGENT OR SUBAGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. A subagent represents the owner, not the buyer, through an agreement with the owner's broker. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:
 - Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
 - May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
 - Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
