ROCKIN V RANCH

Live Oak County, George West, TX

1,309 ± Acres | $4,908,750 | Shown by Appointment Only

LOCATION

The Rockin V Ranch is set up and ready to go. Some of the best quail and wing shooting around. High fenced with MLD permit and good management that has produced some great trophy deer. The ranch has good white-tailed deer and there are some great exotics on the ranch including blackbuck, aoudad, fallow, and axis. The ranch has been very well thought out with excellent management including brush management and strippings, senderos and protected quail feeders and waterers to provide for a very healthy quail population. The past years have seen great dove hunting as well.

PROPERTY DETAILS

The ranch is mostly flat with higher elevation to the north side. Three water wells provide plenty of water to the main compound and the wildlife waterers and troughs. There are also two ponds on the property.

This ranch is set up as an easy-to-manage property. It really works well for company hunts and entertaining with a skeet shooting range, a conference room for corporate meetings, a party barn and game room, gun room, and foreman's home. Also, the main Barndominium has 2,220 square feet and three bedrooms and two baths, with a large kitchen and beautiful bar area. The next Barndominium is a 2,210 square foot four bedroom, two bath with the conference room and gun room. It is plumbed to easily convert the conference room to one or more bedrooms. There is also a covered pavilion, fire pit and two other large barns and last but not least, a chipping green. The ranch will sell with the furnishings and all blinds and feeders.

The ranch is surface only with no minerals owned. The property is currently under 1-D-1 Ag valuation. Most all equipment conveys. The large John Deere tractor and high top truck can be purchased separately.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be supervised by a broker to perform any services and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER’S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker’s own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client’s questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

- AS AGENT OR SUBAGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner’s agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. A subagent represents the owner, not the buyer, through an agreement with the owner’s broker. An owner’s agent must perform the broker’s minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer’s agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant’s agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer’s agent must perform the broker’s minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller’s agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker’s obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:
 - Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
 - May, with the parties’ written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
 - Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker’s duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker’s services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
