Location: The ranch is located between Smithville and Giddings off of county road 289; to Smithville it is a 12 mile drive and to Giddings it is a 13 mile drive. The Lee and Bastrop county divides the ranch nearly in half. 53 miles to downtown Austin and 125 miles to downtown Houston.

Habitat: The property is mainly wooded with a large open field on the east side. The 3R ranch is on the western edge of the Post Oak Savanna Region. The forested areas of the ranch are a mixture of oak and a divers underbrush. Scattered across the property are 6 ponds that during the winter hold a good number of waterfowl. A few of these ponds have bass and catfish.

Wildlife: The whitetail deer on the property are abundant with great habitat scattered across the ranch. Ducks utilize the ponds during their migration. Wild hogs can be found in many of the wooded areas and utilizing the abundant water sources throughout the ranch. A diverse number of songbirds are found on the ranch due to the thick wooded areas.

Improvements: The ranch has an impressive road system that makes traveling to any corner of the ranch easy. There is electricity and water located are on the property but has not been utilized in some years.

Water: The Ranch has 6 stock ponds that are used for livestock and wildlife. Many of these ponds are stocked with fish and in the winter months hold a number of waterfowl.

Electricity: Electric lines run to the house area on the East Side of the property.

Access: The ranch is accessed by a deeded easement.

Minerals: 10% of owned minerals will convey at asking price.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be supervised by a broker to perform any services and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER’S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker’s own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client’s questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

- AS AGENT OR SUBAGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. A subagent represents the owner, not the buyer, through an agreement with the owner’s broker. An owner's agent must perform the broker’s minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer’s agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker’s minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller’s agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:
 - Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
 - May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
 - Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker’s duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker’s services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
