TOPOGRAPHY, RANGELAND & HABITAT

This is gently rolling country, undulating from grassy hilltops through shallow draws and back up the next hill. This terrain lends itself to tank construction, and the ranch boasts 5 stock tanks, the largest of which are 3-4 acres when full. Elevations range from +/-230 to 280 feet. Soils on the ranch are predominantly sandy loams and sandy clay loams. Approximately 70% of this ranch consists of Class 2 soils per USDA data. Combined with average rainfall of approximately 36 inches, this ranch will grow some grass. The current stocking ratio is 1 A.U. to 6.5 acres. Most of this ranch is open country dotted with scattered live oaks and small oak motts providing great visual appeal. Approximately 150 acres along one of the wet-weather creeks is classic Goliad County live oak country, providing natural shelter for cattle and wildlife alike.

WILDLIFE

Whitetail deer, hogs, turkey, dove, and quail, plus varmints and waterfowl frequent the ranch.

AGRICULTURE

Current stocking rate is approximately 1 animal unit to 6.5 acres. Covered, pipe working pens are located at the arena. Perimeter fences are net-wire and barbwire top wires. Cross-fenced into multiple pastures. Grasslands are generally clean pasture, with some light brush around the oaks.

MINERALS

Surface only; seller does not believe any minerals are owned. There is no production on the ranch.

WATER

Four water wells, plus the stock tanks, provide good water distribution across the ranch.

IMPROVEMENTS

Follow the oak-lined, paved drive in from the gate and you will arrive at a classic Hacienda befitting this beautiful ranch. This +/- 5,580 SF 5:4.5 home sits atop one of the high points and is nestled in a beautiful stand of live oaks. Watch the sunset from the expansive back patio or the swimming pool. (Additional photos coming soon.) A 28,800 SF covered arena, foreman's home, 5-stall horse barn, and 6,000 SF insulated barn with concrete slab, and a smaller equipment shed constitute the remaining primary improvements.

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be supervised by a broker to perform any services and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

- AS AGENT OR SUBAGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. A subagent represents the owner, not the buyer, through an agreement with the owner's broker. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:
  - Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
  - May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
  - Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
    - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
    - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
    - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
