DESCRIPTION

Commonly known as “The Birthplace of Eagle Lake”, the Farris Hotel 1912 was built to be a site for rail travelers and businessmen alike to rest their heads in the early 1900’s. Formerly named “The Dallas Hotel”, the building was originally the social and business center of the town and hosted guests to the likes of the Rockefellers, Conway Twitty, and T.G. Shepherd. Throughout the years, the red-bricked structure with a wrap-around covered porch has been meticulously restored and its Beaux Arts style maintained.

In 2017, the hotel was converted into a private residence by an individual passionate about history and the legacy that the hotel brings to the town.

The grounds are approximately one acre in the historic downtown of Eagle Lake at the corner of Post Office and McCarty. The first floor of the hotel consists of a loaded commercial kitchen that has everything a chef would need to feed a full house, a banquet hall that can host a large gathering or event, his and hers commercial bathrooms, a sizable meeting room, a “front of house” office, and a barroom complete with a separate bar-back room. The hotel’s second floor boasts twelve guest rooms, ten and a half bathrooms, a utility room, a washroom, a storage closet, and a grand living area. Attached to the living area is a hall that leads to a delightful terrace where guests can catch some fresh air. The sizable courtyard outside connects the hotel to a greenhouse. Adjacent to the courtyard is “the back yard” which contains a concrete drive that directs you straight to a newly built saloon worthy of hosting large parties and events.

This property has limitless potential to be converted back into a hotel, a wedding venue, or events space. Call or email us today for more information!

The Farris Hotel 1912 is in the heart of Eagle Lake’s historic downtown at Post Office and McCarty and approximately 68 miles WSW of downtown Houston.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be supervised by a broker to perform any services and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

- AS AGENT OR SUBAGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. A subagent represents the owner, not the buyer, through an agreement with the owner's broker. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:
  - Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
  - May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
