DESCRIPTION

Welcome to the 221 Farm, a meticulously maintained 221-acre property nestled just 35 minutes west of Houston, and north of Brookshire. Originally known as the Buhler Ranch and recognized by the Texas Department of Agriculture as a Family Land Heritage ranch, this property is steeped in history and offers a truly picturesque setting. The property has a completely renovated 3-bedroom, 3.5-bathroom country farmhouse, dating back to circa 1934. There is also 2 1 bedroom cottages and a 3 bedroom Foreman's house creating an amazing compound for family and friends, or for onsite housing for staff. The renovation of the main house was completed in 2019 by Jake Houseberg Homes and Virginia Kelsey Architects, offers a perfect blend of modern comforts while preserving the charm of a traditional country farmhouse. In addition to the farmhouse, a 24-stall barn designed by Dillon Kyle Architects and built in 2019 by Jake Houseberg is a remarkable feature of the property with unmatched views. Set in the woods beyond these improvements is an elevated sand exercise track and 100 acres of wooded fenced pastures for horses, as well as cattle and a high-fenced pasture for a variety of animals.

IMPROVEMENTS

The farmhouse has been thoughtfully updated, offering 3 bedrooms and 3.5 bathrooms, with a design that seamlessly blends modernity with the traditional charm of a country farmhouse. The pointed arches in the entry are reminiscent of an old country church, while the front living room features a wood-burning fireplace. The dining room connects to a fully modernized country kitchen, and the family room and porch are flooded with natural light through expansive windows. The firepit, pizza oven, and screened-in porch keep the stars close at night.

The 24-stall barn, constructed in 2015, and the three additional guest houses or foreman's house are laid out perfectly for privacy and security while ensuring the barn, trails and wildlife are steps away. The house includes a Wolf 36" range, a Subzero 48" fridge, Bosch Dishwasher, Hoshizaki "Sonic Ice" nugget icemaker, and Whirlpool Washer and Dryer. The barn was designed to maximize the cooling of stalls through chimney effect and alignment with prevailing breezes. It's equipped with Rocking J stalls, air-conditioned tack rooms, a utility room, and a bathroom. The utility room is stocked with a washer, dryer, and a Koolaire commercial ice maker, along with an unconditioned feed room.

Information About Brokerage Services

11-2-2015

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be supervised by a broker to perform any services and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

- AS AGENT OR SUBAGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. A subagent represents the owner, not the buyer, through an agreement with the owner's broker. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:
 - Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
 - May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
 - Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.
