DESCRIPTION

Welcome to the Stars at Night Farm. This meticulously maintained 221-acre farm is 35 minutes west of Houston just north of Brookshire. Originally it was the Buhler ranch, recognized by the Texas Dept of Agriculture as a Family Land Heritage ranch. With a completely renovated 3/3.5 country farmhouse (built circa 1934) renovation was done in 2019 by Jake Houseberg Homes and Virginia Kelsey architects and a 24-stall Dillon Kyle architects barn, also built in 2019 by Jake Houseberg, the views over the polo field are glorious. Set in the woods beyond these improvements is an elevated sand exercise track and 100 acres of wooded fenced pastures for the horses, as well as cattle and a high fenced pasture for all kinds of animals.

IMPROVEMENTS

A perfectly updated 3 bed/3.5 bath country house, this fully renovated home with new bathrooms and kitchen still embraces the charm of a country farmhouse. The pointed arches in the entry are reminiscent of an old country church. The front living room has a wood-burning fireplace and the dining room connects into the completely modern country kitchen. The family room and the porch all have huge windows with light coming in from all sides. The firepit, the pizza oven and the screen porch keep the stars close at night.

The 24-stall barn and the 3 extra guest houses or foreman's house are laid out perfectly for privacy and security while everything is steps away from the barn, the trails and the wildlife. The house includes Wolf 36" range, Subzero 48" fridge, Bosch Dishwasher, Hoshizaki "Sonic Ice" nugget icemaker, Whirlpool Washer/Dryer. The barn was completed in 2015 and was designed to maximize the cooling of stalls through chimney effect and alignment with prevailing breezes. The 24 stalls utilize Rocking J stalls air-conditioned tack rooms, utility room and bathroom. The utility room has a washer, dryer and Koolaire commercial ice maker, and 1 unconditioned feed room.

AREA HISTORY

Close to Brookshire and easy access from I 10, in the path of Houston's westward growth with beautiful country properties and polo farms all around.

Not often do you get a beautiful home and a beautiful barn with many other aspects to enjoy in the country, all 35 minutes from Downtown Houston.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be supervised by a broker to perform any services and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

- AS AGENT OR SUBAGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. A subagent represents the owner, not the buyer, through an agreement with the owner's broker. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:
 - Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
 - May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
