LOCATION

Conveniently situated just 3 miles west of Highway 59 near Wharton, Texas, the Colorado River Ranch provides effortless accessibility.

PROPERTY MAP

TOPOGRAPHY, RANGELAND & HABITAT

The ranch is adorned with majestic live oaks along the river frontage, creating an enchanting habitat for wildlife while offering a scenic pathway to the river, adding to the ranch's picturesque charm.

WILDLIFE

Deer, hogs, dove, and waterfowl are all present on the property, benefiting from minimal hunting pressure, ensuring abundant opportunities for outdoor enthusiasts.

AGRICULTURE

The tract presents ideal conditions and fertile soils for a variety of agricultural pursuits, including crops, pasture, vegetable farming, and orchards.

WATER

The property boasts a single water well, powered by a windmill, ensuring a reliable water supply. Moreover, Colorado River Ranch features over 1,500 feet of coveted river frontage. The property offers a great potential for creating wetlands on the property for duck hunting.

IMPROVEMENTS

While modest in development, the ranch features essential improvements such as a new fence and minor clearing, laying the groundwork for potential enhancements and personalization by future owners.

MINERALS

The seller has opted to retain all mineral rights, preserving ownership and control over potential mineral resources beneath the property.

Information About Brokerage Services

11-2-2015

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be supervised by a broker to perform any services and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

- AS AGENT OR SUBAGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. A subagent represents the owner, not the buyer, through an agreement with the owner's broker. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.
- AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:
 - Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
 - May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
 - Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.
